

Dietary Manager Training

Penta Career Center
Adult & Continuing Education

Food Service Manager: This course is designed to prepare students for the Association of Nutrition and Foodservice Professionals (ANFP) Credentialing Examination. Penta Career Center's Dietary Managers Training course is a high-quality, "hands-on", practical course which follows the requirements set by the DMA. The four (4) core courses cover nutrition and medical nutrition therapy, food service management, human resources management, and food safety and sanitation.

Medical Nutrition Therapy

2/27-5/21/12 Mondays 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Management of Food Service Operations

2/15-5/23/12 Wednesdays 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Human Resource Management

2/23-5/31/12 Thursdays 6:00-9:00 p.m.

ServSafe Sanitation & Food Safety (scheduled for 4 nights, other DMT classes are cancelled)

3/5-3/8/12 Monday-Thursday 5:30-9:30 p.m.

Clinical (Hands-on) Experience

Field experience portion is 150 hours and is coordinated by a Registered Dietitian. Qualified students can have reduced hours, talk with Cindra Holland.

Program End Date: July 30, 2012

Tuition: $2,750

(Includes books, all courses above and CDM, CFPP pre-exam study intensive 1-day course). Monthly payments available!

Students are responsible for the cost of the DMA exam ($395). Next exam date: March 31, 2012.

Prerequisites:

- Pre-entrance Exam - $30
- High School Diploma or GED
- Present BCI (fingerprinting) background check
- Word, Excel, & PowerPoint computer courses are recommended during or after completion of the DMT course to improve job placement. Penta Adult Education has an introduction to computer course that combines all three Microsoft Office programs, which is geared just for the DMT student.

*

Association of Nutrition & Foodservice Professionals

www.anfponline.org

For further information, contact the Adult & Continuing Education Office