

TEACHING PROFESSIONS

2020-2021

Teaching Professions is a one-year program designed to give qualified seniors a head start on a successful career path to teaching. Students have focused class work and actual field experiences in a variety of educational settings in local school systems. The program is available at Perrysburg High School.

Program Highlights:

- Work with professional educators in elementary, middle, secondary, and special needs classrooms to plan lessons, develop activities and tutor students
- Explore learning styles and teaching strategies that lead to a career in education
- Create a comprehensive reflective portfolio while exploring a variety of educational opportunities

The Program Focuses on the Following State Approved Courses:

- Child and Adolescent Development
- Education Principles
- Communities, Schools and Stakeholders
- Curriculum and Instruction for Teaching Professions
